

Manchester People Who Formerly Opposed Are Now for Annexation.

GREAT CHANGE IN SENTIMENT.

Much of It Charged to the Sewer System and Condition of the Streets—Death of Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Cole.

The sentiment in Manchester just at present seems to be more favorable to annexation than ever before. Some of the citizens give as a reason for this the dissatisfaction with which the present sewerage system is viewed by a great many, if not a majority, of the citizens, and the bad condition in which the streets have been for some time past. Many citizens, who admit that before the annexation question was first broached they were bitterly opposed to it, now express themselves warmly in favor of becoming "more than a sister" to the big city across the James. Of course there are those who frown at the mere mention of "annexation," but they seem now to be largely in the minority. About a year ago, as a member of the Annexation Committee of Manchester expressed it yesterday, "the question was on a boom," but lately the matter seems to have been dropped. However, while the question has not been discussed quite so much during the months intervening between March of last year and the present, the people have by no means ceased to think of it, as the Dispatch man found out yesterday.

Next Thursday the Joint Committee on Annexation of the two cities will meet in the City Hall, in Richmond, and the question will be thoroughly discussed, and probably some definite action be taken.

DEATH OF TWO LADIES.

Mrs. E. F. Harrison, widow of A. P. Harrison, died yesterday morning at 1:30 o'clock, at her late residence, 115 east Twelfth street. She was the sister of Mrs. N. H. Mayo, of the city, and leaves five sons, who have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their mother. Mrs. Harrison had been quite ill for some time, and her death was not unexpected.

The funeral will take place from the Manchester Presbyterian church this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the remains will be sent to the country for burial. Mrs. Harrison was 62 years of age, and had been married to her late husband for 35 years. She was a member of the church, and was a devoted mother and wife.

At the meeting of the Street Committee Friday night the matter of granting franchises to a telephone company to run its lines in Manchester was taken up, but the final disposition of the matter was deferred until next Tuesday night. The Mutual and Standard are the companies applying for privileges.

In regard to the closing and numbering of the streets, in order that the city may have free delivery, the committee decided to recommend to the Council at the next meeting that such action be taken.

After approving a number of bills and discussing the bad condition of the streets upon which the sewers have been laid the committee adjourned until next Tuesday night.

It is said that the young ladies who attended the German Club will give a leap year ball shortly.

The Joseph E. Johnston Camp of Confederate Veterans, held a meeting Friday night in the Armory of the Manchester Grays.

The special given by the Epworth League of Central Methodist church, at that church Friday night, was a most enjoyable affair, and largely attended.

The usual services will be held in the city churches to-day.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Samuel C. Taylor, who did effective work in capturing the burglar at the "Green House," has been promoted to the same man a breakfast at his home on Sunday morning. Mr. Taylor resides across the street from where the burglary was committed.

Miss Gertrude and Josephine Massie, of Nelson county, who have been spending the Christmas holidays with Miss Florence McRae, on Porter street, returned home yesterday.

Miss Florence McRae returned to Nelson county yesterday to take charge of her school.

After the services at Bathbridge-Street Baptist church Wednesday night Mr. G. S. Williamson was presented with a new Old-Followers pin by one of the scholars of the school.

Miss Florence Moody entertained her friends at the residence of her father, Mr. W. L. Moody, on Porter street, Friday night.

Miss Amelia Coalter, of King William county, who has been visiting in this city, returned home Friday evening, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Heth Vaden and Mrs. B. P. Owen, of Buck Hill, near Manchester.

Religious services will be held at the Swanboro' every Thursday night by St. Andrew's Brotherhood of Meade-McMerrin church.

Mr. Leslie Prentiss, who has been quite sick, is improving.

NO TIDINGS OF MR. RENNIE.

His Friends Believe That He Has Wandered Off Somewhere.

The disappearance of Mr. John Rennie, of Granite, is still shrouded in mystery, and his friends are anxiously awaiting any advice as to his whereabouts.

A strange man, apparently demented, who was found in the woods some days ago, was thought to have probably been Mr. Rennie, but the Dispatch's correspondent at that place telegraphed last night that the man was found before Mr. Rennie disappeared. There was also a report that a man, wandering about in an aimless manner, had been seen near Charlottesville, but information received from there last night proved the rumor to be incorrect.

It will be remembered that Mr. Rennie disappeared from his home about 2 o'clock on New-Year's morning. He and his wife had been to some entertainment in the afternoon, and when they returned they entered the county some friends during the early part of the evening. At both of these light refreshments had been served, but during the entire day Mr. Rennie only drank three glasses of wine, and soon as the entertainment was over he called on Mr. and Mrs. Rennie, retired in order that they might rest a little before their New-Year visitors, whom they expected about midnight, should arrive. He heard the party when they called at the residence of a neighbor, and got up and prepared to receive them. The callers were eleven in number, and Mr. Rennie, who had not put on his coat, sat at the open door and received them, shaking hands with each and wishing him a happy New Year. When inside the house refreshments were served, and Mr. Rennie took a glass of wine, he was seen by his friends. Shortly afterward one of the party noticed that he appeared somewhat dazed, and asked him if there was anything the matter. Mr. Rennie replied that he was all right, but he almost immediately left the room, and since then, so far as is known, has not been seen.

Yesterday one of the holes at Mr. Rennie's quarry, which has six or seven feet of water in it, was dragged, but to no purpose.

The friends of the missing man do not believe that he has committed suicide, as they can see no reason for such an act. Mr. Rennie has a wife and nine children, and nothing in his conduct has ever suggested the idea to them that he would take his own life. The general belief about his home is that, while in a state of mental depression, he wandered off.

GETTING THEIR SKATES IN ORDER.

Devotees of the Sport Will Be Out To-Morrow If Not To-Day.

The predicted cold was arrived on time, and if the thermometer continues to fall to-day the ice on the several ponds and lakes around the city will be thick enough for skating to-morrow. Indeed, the ice on the reservoir lake would bear one's weight last night, and at 11 o'clock a solitary skater could be seen drifting to and fro over the smooth surface of the frozen water. The skater who ventured on the thin ice last night must have been an expert, however, to keep from breaking it, and it certainly would not have been safe had several been upon it. Probably the ice will be thick enough on the lake to-day for skating. At the lake at Forest Hill Park, where the skating rink was last night, and there will probably not be skating there until to-morrow.

Already men and boys are getting out their skates, having them sharpened, and are ready to go out for a spin, and are preparing to enjoy the healthful exercise, as soon as the ice will bear their weight.

Storm overcoats have been drawn out, and the weather predictions are correct, for a brief period people will be going about attired as if they lived in an Arctic clime. Should you meet your best girl on the street you will hardly recognize her beneath the mass of furs from which she will peep out at you. In a city like this, when only during a week or two is the ice thick enough for skating, the devotees of the sport make the most of the short time in which they may indulge in the graceful and exhilarating exercise.

And so just at present there are hundreds of men, boys, and girls who are anxiously watching the mercury in the thermometer, and hoping that it will continue taking a downward course.

Forest Hill Park is the favorite resort for skaters now, though a few years ago the Reservoir lake was the great gathering place for the devotees of the sport, and still further back the dock was frequented by skaters. Since the craze for foot-ball and the bicycle came in the "sweater," formerly only used in gymnastics and athletic contests, has come into common use, and now the skater, instead of being hampered by an overcoat, wears the close-fitting woollen article of apparel, which keeps him quite warm, and has no other kind of wrap, and still further back the dock was frequented by skaters. THINK THEY GOT THE MONEY.

Two Negroes Suspected of Having Mr. Jenkins's Bills.

The police at the Second Station think they have in custody the parties who found the roll of bills amounting to $200 which Mr. Jenkins, the traveler from New York who stopped in Richmond last Wednesday between trains, succeeded in losing before he had been here ten minutes.

Detective Wren and Pullenau Shieles have been working on the case for several days past, and yesterday they found that John Thompson and Bettie White (both colored) had been spending rather more money than their circumstances would seem to have justified. A search-warrant was issued, and the house at which the man and woman live together located on Byrd street between Ninth and Tenth, was "goose through" by the officers. John and Bettie had evidently been preparing themselves for the projected cold wave. A lot of heavy woollen underwear was found, besides a handsome gentleman's overcoat, a lady's wrap, a dress, a gentleman's suit, of clothes, a derby hat, and other articles of wearing apparel, all new, the prices of which had not been taken off.

The paper in which some of the goods were found, showed that they had been purchased from A. Saks & Co. The sum of $115 in money was also found, and the police are satisfied that the man and woman, who are now in custody, are the parties who found the roll of bills in Jenkins's possession. Both were placed under arrest, and looked up. They refused to talk when questioned.

Mr. Jenkins is expected back in the city to-day. There has been much gossip about the case, and many are wondering how Mr. Jenkins's money, as that gentleman to the officers when he left here that he had found a colored woman run down by a street car, and that she had discovered that he had lost his money. The house in which the woman lives is only about a square from the Byrd-street depot.

Wanted! Named Virginia.

Master James Donahue, the 10-year-old son of Mr. Edward Donahue, of Falmouth, wrote a letter to the President of the United States about two weeks ago asking him to name one of the battleships which are in the course of construction "Virginia," and saying that he would vote for a Democratic President when he grew to manhood. He received the following letter in reply last Tuesday:

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., December 29, 1896.
"Dear Sir:—The President directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of recent date, and to inform you that it has been referred to the consideration of the Secretary of the Navy."
Very respectfully,
HENRY THURBER.

The letter was written without the knowledge of his parents, who were quite surprised when the reply came.

A Change of Organists.

Mr. Edgar L. Justis has just been appointed organist of Freeman-Street Baptist church, Norfolk. This is the largest church in the city by the sea, and a magnificent organ is being built in it, at a cost of $500. The congregation think that it will be the finest and largest instrument of the State when completed.

Mr. Justis is a refined and cultivated musician, and a remarkably clever organist. He has composed several pieces of very decided merit, and is the author of a book on "Rhythm," which has been the subject of flattering notices in the musical papers throughout the country. Grace-Street parts with him with great reluctance.
